Courses of Study.

In order to meet the wants of a larger class of Students, six regular courses of study are provided, namely: The Normal English, Belles Lettres, Science and Literature, Classical, Art, and Music. Students may adopt any of these courses exclusively, or may select such studies from them as they desire, subject to the approval of the Faculty.

The Normal English is designed to meet the increasing demand for teachers in our Common Schools, and is heartily commended to young ladies and gentlemen who desire thorough instruction and drill in the English branches. To those who complete this course a Diploma, expressing the scholarship attained, will be given.

The Belles Lettres Course is specially arranged to accommodate young ladies who may wish to omit the Higher Mathematics beyond Elementary Algebra and Geometry. It thus affords opportunity to connect studies in Music and Art with a well selected course in Literature and Science.

The Course in Science and Literature is intended to give wider culture and more thorough mental discipline. It differs from the Classical Course mainly in that it omits the Greek Language entirely, and makes Latin elective with German or French during the first two years. Before entering upon this course, the Student must be thoroughly acquainted with the Common English branches.

The Classical Course is much more extensive than is ordinarily pursued at Seminaries. It will compare favorably with the Curriculum adopted by our best institutions of learning. We offer it with entire confidence to young men who are preparing for professional life, and also to young ladies who aspire to superior intellectual culture. The preparation for this course is a thorough knowledge of the studies embraced in the Preparatory Course.

Young men desiring to enter the lower or higher classes in College are allowed to take such studies as they need for that purpose.

General Information.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY

Is an institution of high grade, with ample facilities for giving young ladies and gentlemen a superior education. It is organized upon the plans which have been approved by long experience, and adopted by the best schools in this country, embracing all modern appliances in means and methods of instruction. It was founded in 1848, and is regularly chartered by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, and authorized to confer degrees upon those who complete the prescribed courses of study.

The Seminary is under the patronage of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, being owned and practically managed by the Preachers' Aid Society. As this investment was rather to promote the important work of Higher Christian Education than to make money, the paramount purpose is to combine thorough instruction and careful moral training with the comforts of a good home, at the lowest possible rates.

LOCATION.

Williamsport is one of the most beautiful and healthy places in the State. It has never been subject to epidemics of any kind. Many coming to the school in poor health have returned fully restored. The city is situated on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River, has a population of twenty thousand, is widely known for its intelligence, its enterprise, the taste displayed in the character of its public buildings and private residences, and the moral appliances with which it is furnished. In small towns and villages the facilities for culture, intellectual as well as æsthetic and moral, are generally limited, rarely reaching beyond the institution itself, and hence student life must become monotonous, lacking the inspiration which a larger place with wider opportunities affords. Twenty-seven churches, an active temperance organization, and a branch of the Y. M. C. A., embracing many of the most earnest Christians in the community, with a large library free to all, and accessible at all times, indicate some of the religious influences brought to bear upon the young in Williamsport.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings occupy an eminence overlooking the city, and are surrounded by beautiful shade trees, while the grounds contain five acres, affording ample room for exercise and play. They are brick, heated by furnaces in the cellar, and supplied throughout with pure mountain water.

The ladies' department is furnished with bath-room and all modern appliances for comfort, and in the entire arrangement of the buildings great care has been taken for the convenience and health of the occupants.

The ladies' apartments are entirely separate from the others, and there is no association of the sexes but in the presence of their instructors. The happy influence, mutually exerted, in their slight association in the recitation room, at the table, and in the public exercises of the chapel, is to be seen in the cultivation of a cheerful and animated disposition, in the formation of good habits and manners, in ardent devotion to study, and in the attainment of high moral character. These, with many other valuable results, have established the fact that the best plan for a school is, according to the evident design of Providence in the constitution of society, on the basis of a well regulated Christian family. The members of the Faculty live in the building, eat at the same tables, and have constant oversight of all the Students.

ROOMS AND FURNITURE.

The rooms are larger than in most boarding schools, the ladies' being 16x13 feet, and the gentlemen's 20x9½ feet. They are furnished with all heavy articles, and, if desired, any room will be entirely furnished; but Students may bring their own sheets (for double beds), pillows, pillow-cases, blankets, counterpanes, mirrors and lamps, and thus lessen the expense.

EXPENSES.

Total cost, with room furnished as above:

In Classical and Scientific Course, per year.....	$203 33
“ “ “ “ per term of 12 weeks...	61 60
In Common English Course, per year.....	193 33
“ “ “ “ per term of 12 weeks.....	58 60

When rooms are entirely furnished, $25 will be added per year, or $10 per term. This includes all charges for furnished rooms, carpet, board, washing (12 pieces per week), fuel, and tuition in Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Sciences, English, Book-Keeping and Penmanship. THERE ARE NO EXTRAS WHATSOEVER, except for ornamental branches and Modern Languages, the charges for which are specifically stated elsewhere.

We desire to emphasize this statement, because some schools, whose advertised rates are higher than ours, increase the expenses still more by numerous “extras.”

☞ We ask those who are seeking education for themselves, and parents who contemplate sending their children to a boarding school, to carefully note the fact, that we furnish everything embraced in a thoroughly equipped school, with all the comforts of a good home, including a large, airy and completely furnished room, in a beautiful and healthy location, at the low rate of $228.33 per year, in courses of study which prepare the student for business, for professional life, or for the lower or higher classes in college; or, if they prefer to furnish their own rooms with bed-clothes, mirrors, lamp and carpet, for $203.33 in Classical studies, and $193.33 in Common English.

PAYMENTS.

Term bills payable in advance, one-half at opening, and the balance at the middle of the term.

Students attending a part of a term will be charged at the rate of $4 per week for board, washing and room.

When Students are called away by sickness or Providential necessity, moneys advanced will be returned. Students dismissed or leaving without the approval of the President, may be charged for the full term.

Deduction for absence is made on recommendation of the President to the Treasurer. No reduction for board or tuition for absence of ten days or less, at the beginning, or the last three weeks before the close of the term.

Five dollars must be deposited with the Treasurer, on entering, to cover damages that the Student may do to room or other property. This will be returned when the Student leaves, in case no injury has been done. Any Student rooming alone will be charged $3 extra per term.

Day scholars will be charged from $7.50 to $12.50 per term of twelve weeks, according to the studies they pursue.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The Seminary year is divided into three terms, as follows:

	Begins.	Ends.	Vacation.
FALL TERM—16 Weeks.....	Monday, Sept. 2, 1878.	Dec. 23.	2 Weeks.
WINTER TERM—12 Weeks..	Monday, Jan. 6, 1879.	Mar. 31.	None.
SPRING TERM—12 Weeks...Monday,	Mar. 31, 1879.	June 19.	10 Weeks.

ADMISSION.

Pupils of good moral character will be received at any time, for a single term or longer period.

Must arrange bills with the Treasurer before attending recitations.

Must take at least four studies, unless excused by the Faculty.

Must register name and church, and agree to comply with all rules and regulations of the School.

Each Student will be considered a member of the Institution until due notice shall have been given of intention to leave, and permission obtained of the President.

BOARDING.

This department is under the general direction of the President, but an experienced Steward and a thoroughly competent

Matron have immediate charge. The department commends itself by cleanliness, abundance of supply, excellence of quality, good cooking, and adaptation to health.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline is firm, but mild and impartial. While every encouragement will be given to the orderly and studious, and due allowance be made for youthful indiscretion, yet the lawless and refractory cannot long remain among us.

APPARATUS.

The Seminary is furnished with a collection of apparatus, together with full sets of Globes, Maps and Charts, a Cabinet of Minerals, and a large supply of Chemical and Laboratory Utensils, thus affording facility for illustration and experiment.

MERIT AND DEMERIT.

A daily record is kept of all the exercises of the School, from which record the Students will be graded. A record of demerits is also kept. Tardiness, unexcused absences from required exercises, and all disorderly conduct, will subject the Student to demerit marks. Ten such marks bring a private reproof before the Faculty; twenty a public reprimand before the whole School; and thirty may send the offender away. Sessional reports are sent to parents.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

Every Student is required to attend religious services in the chapel daily, as well as public worship, morning and evening, every Sabbath, at such place as parents or guardians may designate, the President assenting.

N. B.—Each Student must be supplied with a Bible, to be read, without note or sectarian comment, in the services of the chapel. The whole School read in concert.

A general experience meeting is held every Sabbath at half-past eight A. M., and generally a service of song at 6 P. M., continuing one hour. Also, prayer meeting for the gentlemen and ladies, separately, on Thursday evenings. Attendance upon these social services is optional with the Students.

LITERARY EXERCISES.

Exercises in Spelling, Etymology, Reading, Declamation and Original Composition are required of all the Students throughout the year. In addition to these, public exercises are held in the Seminary chapel every Friday evening, at which the more advanced Students read essays or deliver original speeches, interspersed with vocal or instrumental music, furnished by the Music Department.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are three flourishing literary societies connected with the Seminary: the Belles Lettres, the Gamma Epsilon, and the Tripartite Union. The first two are in the gentlemen's, and the last in the ladies' department. Each has a well furnished hall and a judiciously selected library, aggregating more than two thousand volumes. Each prepares and reads a paper in the chapel once in three weeks, in connection with other literary exercises, thus furnishing inspiration to intellectual culture, as well as entertainment for the Students and the public.

INSTRUCTION.

Our methods are modern, and adapted to the need of the Students. No pains are spared to give thorough, practical and scholarly training in all the departments by teachers of superior attainments and experience. Besides instruction in connection with the text book, lectures illustrated by experiments are given from time to time.

OUTFIT.

Every Student should be supplied with warm and durable clothing, heavy boots and shoes, an umbrella, and a pair of slippers to be worn in the room. All articles should be plainly marked with the full name of the owner. We suggest that each Student bring napkins and napkin ring, though this is optional.

A WORD TO PARENTS.

1.  Try to have your children here on the first day of the term, but not before, as we will not be ready to receive them. The classes are formed on the second day, and it will be better for all concerned that the Student start regularly with his class.

2. If possible, do not call them away during the session. Absence, if only for a few days, disarranges the class, and is generally the beginning of irregularity on the part of the scholar.

3. Do not allow your children to leave the School before the examinations, unless it cannot be avoided. Serious inconvenience, to all concerned, often arises from a neglect of this caution.

4. Supply them very sparingly with spending money. Parents cannot be too cautious on this point.

5. Select for your child one of the Instructors, as a patron, to distribute his funds. In this way a more judicious use of your money will be made, and your child will be kept from many temptations.

 Students not boarding in the Institution must observe the following rules:

1. Attend daily prayers.
2. Must attend all the Seminary exercises punctually.
3. Must spend the intervals between recitations in the Study Hall.
4. Must account for all absence by written excuse without delay, time and number of recitations being specified.
5. Must not visit the rooms of boarders without permission.

MEANS OF ACCESS.

The Philadelphia and Erie, the Northern Central and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroads pass through the city, so that Williamsport is readily accessible from all quarters.

 By special arrangements all our Students procure tickets at excursion rates over the Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and Erie, the Northern Central and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroads and their Branches, both going to and returning from their homes, thus materially reducing the expenses of travel. We call the special attention of parents and those seeking education to this fact, and at the same time gratefully recognize the liberality of these railroad companies in dealing with our Institution.

GRADUATES AND FORMER STUDENTS.

It may be safely estimated that from eight to ten thousand persons have received academic instruction, covering from one to three years, in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, while two hundred and thirty-four have completed the prescribed curriculum, graduating with the degrees the Institution confers. We desire to bring all these into active sympathy and cooperation with their Alma Mater, and hence we ask all persons to whom this notice may come, who have been Students here, to send us their address, with any information concerning their personal history that may be of general interest, as we wish to compile a complete catalogue of all the Students now living.

There is a general meeting of the Alumni every year, the day before Commencement. We extend a most cordial invitation to all old Students to attend the meeting this year, which will be held June 26, afternoon and evening. If you cannot come, let us hear from you by letter.

And, now, may I not ask you to aid in enlarging the sphere and increasing the power of our Alma Mater? You can do much in many ways, but you can at least direct those looking for a good Boarding School to ours, or send me their address on a postal card. Carry the Seminary in your heart. She is doing a worthy work, and earnestly asks her sons and daughters to help her.

Prizes.

The following prizes will be awarded during the year:

The President's prize, the gift of the President to that member of the Senior or Junior Class who shall excel in writing and delivering an Oration.

The Faculty prize, the gift of the Faculty to the Student, not a member of the Senior or Junior Class, who shall excel in Declamation.

The Vœlkler prize, the gift of Prof. Vœlkler to the Student who shall excel in Vocal Music.

The Andrus & Co. prize, the gift of Andrus & Co. to the Student who shall excel in Instrumental Music.

Other prizes will be announced early in the school year.

By-Laws.

1. During the hours of study the students shall not be unnecessarily absent from their rooms.

2. At the time appointed to attend prayers, recitation, lecture, or other exercise, each student shall repair quietly and promptly to the place designated.

3. At no time shall any student loiter in the halls or about the doors, or indulge in jumping, wrestling, loud talking, whistling, or any other unnecessary noise, or soil the building with tobacco.

4. The students shall not be absent from their rooms at night after the hour of study indicated by the ringing of the bell, nor shall they attend parties or mixed assemblies without permission from the President; nor shall they at any time visit hotels, or other places of public resort, or on any occasion indulge in the use of intoxicating liquors.

5. All profane and indecent language, playing at games of chance, injuring the property of the Institution or of citizens, quarreling, fighting, the carrying of fire-arms or other dangerous weapons, are strictly forbidden.

6. No student shall leave the limits of the town for a longer time than one hour without permission from the President.

7. Each student will be held strictly accountable for any damage he or she may cause to the Seminary property. Damages by unknown parties may be assessed on the school.

Opinions of Patrons and Friends.

That the public may know the estimate placed upon the Seminary by those who are practically acquainted with its management and work, we append some testimonials received recently from patrons and friends:

BALTIMORE, MD., May 5, 1878.

REV. E. J. GRAY,

DEAR SIR: It affords me great pleasure to state that I consider your school, in every respect, worthy of confidence, having had a ward under your instruction the past year. I am much pleased with his progress, and had I other wards or children to educate, would gladly avail myself of the facilities of Dickinson Seminary.

B. F. PARLETT, Merchant,
92 Lombard street.

DETROIT, MICH., May 6, 1878.

I visited Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport, Pa., in September, 1877, in search of an institution of learning of a high grade, combining home comforts, healthfulness, excellent discipline and superior facilities for mental and moral culture, for my son, aged 18 years. After two days' examination of the city and the Seminary, becoming acquainted with its Faculty, courses of study, and the morale of its students, the beauty and healthfulness of its locality, I found it all I desired. The improved health and progress in studies of my son fully justify my selection. I most cheerfully recommend the institution to parents desiring the above qualifications.

WILLIAM PHELPS, Wholesale Grocer,
91 Washington Av.

HANOVER, PA.

Having been a patron of your institution for the past three years, I have no hesitancy in saying that your facilities for the mental and moral training of young people are most excellent—in my opinion, cannot be excelled by any other institution of the kind in the State. For discipline I consider it especially good, and would advise any one wishing to advance the education of their children to send them.

Yours, &c.,
D. D. BIXLER,
Dealer in Stoves, Tinware, Japanned Ware, &c., &c.

WATSONTOWN, PA., May 6, 1878.

Having had a son graduate in '76, and a daughter in '77, at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, I take pleasure in recommending the Seminary to young men and women who desire a higher education, and to parents who have children to educate. As a school it is "beautiful for situation," healthful in location, excellent in morals and thorough in mental drill. My personal intercourse with the Faculty has been most pleasant, and I regard them as worthy the confidence and patronage of both the Conference and community. I am especially pleased with the personal oversight in the ladies' department.

B. P. KING,
Pastor M. E. Church.

FROSTBURG, MD., May 7, 1878.

I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the worth and efficiency of Dickinson Seminary as an institution of learning. In the culture of morals and religious training I believe it superior to any one I know, while it is fully the equal of others in what it promises to do. The best evidence of my appreciation of it is that I send my children to it and pass by others more conveniently located. I cannot speak too highly of the institution or of its management.

OWEN HITCHENS, Merchant.

MILTON, May, 1878.

My son has been a pupil at the Seminary for one year. I take pleasure in saying that the impression made on my mind is that the Seminary was never in a more flourishing condition, and from his statements I gather that the sanitary condition of the school is excellent. The facilities for mental and moral instruction cannot be surpassed, if equaled, by any institution of the kind in the land.

Very respectfully,

A. M. BARNITZ,
Pastor M. E. Church.

CLEARFIELD, PA., May 8, 1878.

I have been acquainted with the institution over 16 years, having been a student there for more than three years.

I regard it as one of the best institutions in the country for those who have not the time or means to complete a full course in the higher colleges, but as far as its course goes, it compares favorably even with these.

It combines the most approved methods of study and drill with home comforts and a healthful and desirable location. I am glad to say that very great improvements have been introduced by President Gray, and the institution is now on a good basis, with fair prospects of future prosperity.

THOS. H. MURRAY, Lawyer.

WAVERLY, MD., May, 1878.

I know of no school that I could recommend more cheerfully to those having children to educate than Dickinson Seminary, now under the control of Rev. Edward J. Gray, whom I consider eminently qualified to fill such an important position. Having had one son and daughter educated in this institution, and one son there at the present time, I am free to say that the advantages of home comforts, healthfulness, discipline and facilities for mental and moral culture offered by Dickinson Seminary, are, in my opinion, all that those seeking higher education, or parents looking for a school for their children, could ask or desire.

R. G. RANKIN, M. D.

PHILIPSBURG, PA., May, 1878.

I take great pleasure in recommending Williamsport Dickinson Seminary to parents and guardians as an institution where their children or wards will receive the most careful educational training and at the same time all the comforts of their own home. My knowledge is obtained by the attendance of my children at your institution.

J. F. STEINER,
Manufacturer and Dealer in Lumber, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, May, 1878.

An acquaintance with this school for many years, together with a frequent attendance upon its annual examinations and commencement exercises, and a personal acquaintance with a very large number of its ex-students in practical life, have all impressed me most favorably. It imparts fine culture with liberal and thorough scholarship.

SAM'L BARNES, 847 N. Eleventh street,
Pastor Twelfth Street M. E. Church.

HUGHESVILLE, May 6, 1878.

Having for the last three years been a patron of Dickinson Seminary, I can truly say that for healthfulness, home comforts and facilities for mental and moral culture, it is not excelled by any school in the State.

PETER REEDER, Merchant.

BIRD-IN-HAND, Lancaster Co., Pa.

For several years I have been making inquiries about different schools. Having had very favorable reports of Dickinson Seminary, and some acquaintance with the President, and confidence in his ability and Christian character, I felt my daughter would be safe under his care. She has been there now more than four months, perfectly well and happy. Having just returned from a visit there, I can unhesitatingly commend the Seminary to any one wishing to send sons or daughters from home. I was much pleased with all the arrangements.

MRS. KATE R. BARR.

WILLIAMSPORT, May 15, 1878.

Having been a patron of the Seminary for several years past, under your management, it affords me pleasure to say a few words of commendation of the institution. I feel justified in saying that students have every opportunity to obtain a liberal education. Parents and others may also rest assured that careful attention is given to mental and moral training.

Truly yours,

A. J. DIETRICK, City Recorder.

HANOVER, PA., May 6, 1878.

Having had an intimate knowledge of the workings of Dickinson Seminary for more than three years, my son and daughter having been students there, I can sincerely recommend it for the intellectual and moral advantages it affords. The location is healthful; the discipline commendable.

CHAS. YOUNG, Lumber Merchant.

NEW CUMBERLAND, PA., May, 1878.

I have found in the Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, an excellent educator, intellectually and morally. The character of the students from this institution seems to be formed in the right direction for usefulness, and they are sought out and immediate employment in honorable pursuits follows close upon graduation.

Respectfully,

H. R. MOSSER.

MT. CARMEL, May 8, 1878.

Having had my two daughters attending school at Dickinson Seminary for some time, I cheerfully recommend the institution to all who may have children to educate, believing that the facilities for improving the mind are not all the advantages to be enjoyed there; the home-like comforts afforded, and the care taken, not only of the health, but also of the morals, give it a great advantage. In fact, every advantage is afforded that is necessary to make it a first-class institution. The kindness of the President, Rev. E. J. Gray and wife, as well as the professors, is highly spoken of by the students.

A. M. MONTELIUS,
Sup't Stuartville Colliery.

MONTOURSVILLE, May, 1878.

From personal knowledge, and information derived through a son in attendance, I recommend Dickinson Seminary for the judicious selection of its curriculum, thoroughness of instruction and the interest taken in and attention given to its students, individually and collectively.

Truly,
WM. B. KONKLE, Farmer.

ALLENTOWN, May 7, 1878.

My son has been attending Dickinson Seminary for some time. I am well satisfied with the progress he has made in his studies, and would cheerfully recommend it to any one wishing a first-class school, with home comforts.

Yours, truly,
WM. H. TAYLOR.

BALTIMORE, May 6, 1878.

As one of the patrons of your school, it affords me pleasure to state that my son, having been one of its students for some two years, has received more healthful discipline and mental culture than at any other school he ever attended.

Respectfully,
E. SCARBOROUGH, 196 Penn. Av.

HANOVER, May, 1878.

It affords me great pleasure to say that my son has been a student of Dickinson Seminary the last four years, during which time I have been highly pleased with the discipline of the school, as well as its mental and moral training; it is throughout a well-conducted institution. I thank you and the professors for the kindness shown my son. I also consider your charges reasonable. If I had more sons to educate, your school would be my choice. I would recommend to others who have sons to educate, to send them to Dickinson Seminary.

Yours, truly,
C. MOUL,
Planing Mill, Door and Sash Factory.

HARRISBURG, May, 1878.

My husband held this school in high esteem. Judging from what I can learn through my son Herbert, it is a desirable place to send boys when a regard for religious and moral training is desired. Herbert's health has been as good while at school as I have ever known it to be anywhere. I could heartily recommend it to others.

Mrs. REV. J. D. BROWN, (late Missionary to India.)
1809 North Third street.

HESTONVILLE, Philad'a, May 17, 1878.

Having been a student at the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, I take pleasure in commending the institution to the patronage of the public. It is "beautiful for situation," healthful in location, enterprising in its spirit and surroundings, and highly moral in its tone. From what we know of the scholarship and character of its present Faculty, we believe it to be worthy the confidence of those seeking educational facilities.

GEO. S. BROADBENT,
Pastor M. E. Church.

NEW CUMBERLAND, May 6, 1878.

It affords me pleasure to state that, as a patron, I am well pleased with Dickinson Seminary. My son has been a student there for the past year. In the last six years eight of my young friends have gone to the Seminary through my personal effort and recommendation.

Respectfully,
S. MILTON FROST,
Pastor M. E. Church.

WILLIAMSPORT, May 6, 1878.

It affords me real pleasure to bear testimony to the efficiency of the corps of teachers in the Dickinson Seminary, in the manner they discharge their duties to the pupils entrusted to their care. I speak from the experience I had during my son's attendance.

Yours, truly,
E. B. CAMPBELL.

MORRISVILLE, Bucks Co., Pa., May, 1878.

If experience is the best teacher, I can truthfully assert that the head and heart culture afforded by the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary is unexcelled by any institution of like grade in the United States.

FRANCIS A. GILBERT,
Pastor M. E. Church.

Our beloved Dickinson is "beautiful for situation," and healthful physically and spiritually. Gladly would I repeat my school days within her walls; she did me much good, and it forms an interesting study to trace the record many of my contemporaries are making. I believe her sons and daughters compare most favorably with those of higher (?) institutions. Bro. Gray, I believe that under God you are doing a good work.

Yours, fraternally,
H. S. MENDENHALL,
Pastor M. E. Church.

CLEARFIELD, PA., May, 1878.

Those having children to educate cannot do better than to patronize Dickinson Seminary, for, in my opinion, it is second to no other institution in the State for the facilities it affords for mental and moral culture, discipline, home comforts, &c. "I speak that I do know," as my daughter graduated there last June.

L. K. MCCULLOUGH.

WARRENSVILLE, PA., May 1878.

I have unmistakable evidence, obtained from my daughter's attending your school, that the facilities for mental and moral culture and discipline are most excellent, and highly commendable.

Respectfully,
M. A. CHAMPION, Merchant.

LOCK HAVEN, PA., May 6, 1878.

If Dickinson Seminary is now conducted as it was in 1868, I can cheerfully recommend it to all who seek a thorough education. Its facilities for mental culture are good.

HARRY O. CHAPMAN, Insurance Agent.

MT. CARMEL, PA., May, 1878.

As a school for home comforts and healthfulness, good discipline and facilities for mental and moral culture, under its present management, I believe from my own observation, having a daughter there at present, Williamsport Dickinson Seminary has no superior of its grade. I can fully recommend it to the attention of parents wishing a good school for their children.

N. W. COLBURN,
Pastor M. E. Church.

SHAMOKIN, May, 1878.

I, among the great number who have graduated at Dickinson Seminary, can cheerfully recommend it as a first-class school. Among its many advantages and essential requisites, I would mention its facilities for mental and moral culture. Persons wishing to obtain an education will find this institution "up to the times" in discipline and mode of instruction.

Yours, respectfully,
WM. GOODWILL.

HALIFAX, May 13, 1878.

My son and daughter are students at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary. I am fully satisfied of the excellence of the course of study and discipline, and can cheerfully recommend the institution.

WM. SHAMMO, Merchant.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9, 1878.

It gives me pleasure to put on record my indebtedness to Dickinson Seminary. My three years of study in that excellent institution formed the basis of mental culture to which I attribute, in great measure, whatever of good I may be enabled to do my fellow men. They were years of pleasure and profit, and any one may account himself fortunate who is favored with the opportunities for intellectual and moral training furnished by this time-honored Seminary.

FRANCIS E. CHURCH,
Pastor M. E. Church, Mt. Airy Av.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., May, 1878.

My knowledge of Dickinson Seminary embraces a period of fourteen years. I deem it one of the best locations for an institution of learning in the State. It is characterized by healthfulness, and possesses peculiar advantages in giving the students all the blessings of home life. I was a student of the Seminary for three years.

JAS. C. BROWN,
Editor Republican.

WEATHERLY, May 10, 1878.

As far as my knowledge of Dickinson Seminary goes, having had a son there for three years, I can recommend the school as a first-class institution of learning in point of healthfulness, home comforts, discipline and facilities for mental and moral culture. No one having children to educate can make a mistake by sending them there.

WM. HANN, Lumber Dealer.

LEWISTOWN, PA., May 22, 1878.

I can cheerfully recommend Dickinson Seminary to persons who desire, in connection with a good education for their children, a kind guardianship and good religious influence.

Respectfully,
D. B. ROBESON, Cashier Bank.

HANOVER, May 15, 1878.

Having been a patron of Dickinson Seminary for four years, I take pleasure in recommending it to parents having sons and daughters to educate.

Its distinguishing features and those which influenced me in remaining a patron are, the parental discipline, ample and comfortable accommodations, healthy location, assiduous and intelligent instruction, by competent and kind teachers, who aim not only to improve and enrich the mind, but have also always manifested a parent's solicitude and care for the moral and spiritual improvement of their pupils. Dickinson Seminary has my best wishes for the future.

L. F. MELSHEIMER,
Dealer in Wall Paper, &c., &c.

BALTIMORE, June 5, 1878.

I have visited Dickinson Seminary, officially and otherwise, a number of times; have personal knowledge of its beautiful location, picturesque surroundings and easy access by rail and other roads. And, as to home comforts, health, discipline, facilities for mental and moral culture, I commend the school most, in these particulars, to those seeking a higher education, and to parents looking for a school for their children, when I state that for the last four years I have had from one to three of my children in constant attendance.

J. W. HEDGES,
S. S. and Tract Ag't, Baltimore Conference.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 30, 1878.

My daughter has attended Dickinson Seminary for the last two years, and the gratitude of a parent, when the highest and best interests of a child have been carefully studied and ably promoted, renders the task a pleasant one to speak earnestly in commendation of the institution. We think the Faculty both competent and conscientious, and all are fortunate in the ability of its presiding officer, who guards all its interests sacredly.

GEO. P. BARBER, Lumberman.

SOMERSET Co., MD., May 14, 1878.

I esteem it a very great privilege to say that I have an extended knowledge of Dickinson Seminary, having sent six children there, two of whom were converted at the school; two also graduated there. I regard the Seminary, in point of moral and mental culture, as one of the first schools in our country. My occupation is a farmer.

NATHAN C. CONNER.

May 8, 1878.

As a student of Dickinson Seminary, I can testify that for discipline, healthfulness, facilities for mental and moral culture and home comforts, the Seminary can scarcely be equaled. It is splendidly situated for a school, commanding a fine view of the city and surrounding country. The advantages in literature are par excellence.

WM. A. KNIGHT,
Roche Cornwall, England.

BALTIMORE, MD., May 8, 1878.

I spent six days as a visitor at this school and have been delighted with the discipline and home comforts. I never saw things conducted as well on so large a scale. Everything is done with such system and order. I feel as my son says: "You have to learn if you are there." For healthfulness it is certainly unsurpassed. I think, under Mr. Gray's management, everything is prospering finely.

Mrs. McDONALD, 175 Linden Av.

May 6, 1878.

I spent a year at the Seminary, and would gladly spend two more. While there I received impressions which will be of life-long importance. The order and system about the institution is of incalculable value to any youth before starting in life. The literary societies are among the most interesting features of the school. The associations and influences are of the best kind and the instruction is thorough.

GEO. CONN, Farmer,
Huntingdon Valley, Montgomery Co., Pa.

HAZLETON, PA., May 15, 1878.

Allow me to express my high regard for your institution. I never had the pleasure of attending it or any other of equal merit. I wish I had. I admire the pleasant and healthful location of the Seminary, which is also favored with a Faculty of eminence and ability, and what is more, a Faculty that take a deep interest in the welfare of their pupils. I have had wards there at school.

CHAS. F. HILL,
Inventor of S. S. Book Case.

WILLIAMSPORT, May 20, 1878.

I take pleasure in stating from my personal knowledge that Dickinson Seminary, under the management of Rev. E. J. Gray, has so improved in discipline, thorough drill and care for the health and morals of the pupils, that I can heartily recommend the institution as one of the best in the State.
